

PART 2: What's Next?

INTRODUCTION

Following Jesus is an invitation to live a life beyond the ordinary. But you will have to learn to trust him more and more in every step of the way. What matters is not how long have you been following Jesus or how well have you been following him. What matters is Are you following him right now?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

AWAKEN

1. Talk about one major goal that you've achieved in your life. When you started pursuing that goal did it feel unachievable? How were you able to achieve that goal?
2. What risks do you associate with following Jesus? How do those risks cause you to hesitate?

ALIGN

3. Read Luke 5:1-11. What convinced Peter and the other men to finally leave everything and follow Jesus? What step did Peter take that allowed him to experience the supernatural?
4. In the four stages of following discussed in the message (listening and learning; taking a small inconvenient step; allowing Jesus to do something unusual; and surrendering everything), which stage best describes where you are right now? Please explain.

APPLY

5. Based on where you are right now, what is your next step in following Jesus? What can this group do to support you?

MOVING FORWARD

No matter where you are in your journey right now, Jesus is inviting you to trust him more and more and take that next step of faith. And as you take that step, you're moving closer and closer to the life that God has prepared for you. Towards freedom. Towards discovering who you really are. Towards greater exploits. And towards your destiny.

RENEWING YOUR MIND

"Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will send you out to fish for people."

Matthew 4:19 NIV
